Linda Corry will guide our journey through this Quiet Day. Linda is a Coach and Consultant serving on the interim ministry team at Knox Church, Burlington. She is dedicated to inspiring individuals and equipping congregations on their journey of faith. Linda especially enjoys exploring with others the less travelled roads.

Wendy Newman will share her experience of walking the Camino de Santiago or Way of St. James, through Spain, in May-June 2011. Wendy is currently Senior Fellow, Faculty of Information, University of Toronto, continuing a distinguished career as a librarian and public policy advocate. She is a parishioner at Christ's Church Cathedral, Hamilton, and a gifted presenter.
